undergoing a condition of excitement in Kentucky, is well-timed and sound. It is, in substance—Submit to the lass, and trust to legal remedies.

Who are the negroes, that they should be exempted from the perils of war? Way should the rich man's segre be enespeid, and the soor man's on conserpted? Are there no interests in Kentucky to conserve wrent those of the owners of negroes? Does the ownership of black men imply properly rights in white men, and special privileges in the State? Is this peculiar slave properly the most sacred of all things?

We have a negre army in the field, and we do not believe loyal Kentuckians would this day siving the dishanding of this army, if the whole case were committed to their discretion. It would sensibly defract from our shift, the sensity thousand black troops under arms. This is a fact whose weight must be regarded. THE REBEL PRESS. Facts and Fancies About General Sherman's Raid.

Extracts from Leading Journals in the Ootton States.

SHERNAN'S OPERATIONS SURGED UP, correspondent of the Mobile Bysider, ting from Demopolis on the Ist of March, soums up the robel view of Sherman's Gen. Sherman. Insting his cavalry cut off, fell back to the Mississippi.

Thus has terminated one of the most remarkable campaigns of the war, brought to nought by the centage and enterprise of our troops, and the shill and judgment of the commanding General.

OKLY EXTENT OF ONE COUNTY IN STRINGSTPPT BEILD BY YARKERS.

The Macon Confederable indulges in the following gloridication;

"The State of Mississippi is almost whally cleared of Yankees. Sherman is once more in his fortifications around Vickabung and Port Hudson, and there are no Yankees whatever in the northern part of the State. The county, and nothing more.

"Never did an expedition prove such an abortion as that of Sherman. He travened is poor, plincy-woods bells of annual remaining through the southern part of the State. The county, and nothing more.

"Never did an expedition prove such as abortion as that of Sherman. He travened is poor, plincy-woods bells of annual remaining through the southern porton of the State; hurned the small cables and thingss of its inhabitants, and tore up in all Matu fifty miles of rathread. The poly with the purpose of bottler of the small cables and villages of its inhabitants, and tore up in all Matu fifty miles of rathread. The poly with the purpose of bottler of the small cables and villages of its inhabitants, and tore up in all Matu fifty miles of rathread. The properties have a star for horting General Polk back upon the Tombie, and that Sherman and Farragut were to copting. We support the latter has not heard of the retreat of the ally, or cise he would shandon his efforts against the forts at the mouth of Mobile Bay. Our works there and siong the short to the city, are stronger finan like works about the harbor of Charleston; and there need not be the slightest apprehension following specimen interesting. The Florence Mightingale of the Nur-The following is an extenct from a letter written by the Rev. C. E. Weiser, to the Gormon Bribane Between at Chambershepig, Penn.:

Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Sursery. Of this, we are so suce, that we will teach our 'Stay' to least, 'A Bleeships on Mrs. Winslow 'Ro helping her to survivey find escape the griping, coheking and teething siage. We confirm every word set farth in the Prespectus. It performs precisely what it preferes no performs, and every other 'Narcottich' by which the bike is drugged into stupidity, and rendered dull and diduct for life.

We have never seen Mrs. Winslow-known her only through the preparation of her 'Socioling Syrup for Children Teething.' If we had the power, we would make her, as this is, a physical section to the Control Block. It can be a supplied and the control of th
